

Welcome to Saskatoon Stamp Centre's Catalogue #633. How is your stamp collection coming this year? Did you have the opportunity to work on your collection and determine what you would like to add or collect next? Hopefully, that answer is inside these pages. We've assembled another diverse list of Canadian stamps that includes early classics and modern varieties. This catalogue is also accompanied by a 4 page offering of lithographed imperforate trial colour plate proofs of the Newfoundland John Guy Issue. These include singles, pairs and sheetlets of 4 that comprised a collection assembled by Saskatoon Stamp Centre owner, John Jamieson.

Among the early Canada listings, we offer some exceptional 1935 Pictorial Issue Lots such as a beautiful set of 11 imperforate blocks of 4, (Lot 063 pictured on the front cover), imperforate Plate Proof horizontal gutter blocks of 8, (Lot 064), preliminary photographic essays in rejected designs, (Lot 066), enlarged photographic proofs of the 13¢ to $1, (Lot 070), and 7 imperforate gutter blocks of the 6¢ Red Brown Airmail C5iii, (Lots 126-132); all terrific showpiece items for collections that cover this Issue.

Collectors of Modern Errors will note that the back cover offers a nice selection of Missing Colour stamps. Lot 089 - Lady Slipper missing colour is a very recent acquisition and also very rare as only 3 of these have been reported. The other missing colour stamps here are perhaps more familiar and great additions to collections with modern errors such as the 50¢ Ghost Town error, 17¢ Antique Mandora triple error, and the $1 Runnymede Library missing inscriptions. We hope you enjoy this list.
